Eight Women, One Man Get Positions

Although it is more difficult, according to Dr. James Mursell, chairman of the Lawrence teachers' bureau, for women to secure positions as beginners in the teaching field than for men, the list of appointments from Lawrence already includes eight women and only one man.

Ozro Premo will be principal at Abotsford next year, while the following women will enter the profession for the first time: Idele Hulsther and Ellen Kinsman at Stoughton, Olga Smith at Menasha, Laura Sievert and Ina Dunbar at Waupun, Alice Lyons and Marjorie Nickel at Shawano, and Hilda Eiler at Appleton.

The list of appointments is incomplete, Dr. Mursell said. Several more students will probably be placed this week.

Entries In Prize Essay Contest Due By May 17

Entries in the contests for the Alexander Reid and Hicks prizes in English composition must reach the office of Prof. Dix Harwood, head of the English department, by 6 P. M., May 17, according to a statement made Monday by Prof. Harwood. Competition for the Reid prize is open to any student in college. It pays the interest on $500 to the student who writes the best essay of 1,000 to 2,000 words.

Any type of English composition may be entered in the Hicks contest, which, however, is not open to freshmen.

The class in interpretive reading, under Miss Margaret Sherman, will give a public recital at the Conservatory on June 4 and 6. On June 4 the evening will be devoted to Browning, romantic drama and to plays of Oscar Wilde. On June 6 the program will consist of a number of scenes and acts taken from longer plays.

First Copies of 1925 Ariel Off Press Today

First copies of the 1925 Ariel, according to announcement of Charles Marsh, editor, were expected to be ready for distribution today. Because it was not certain that the entire number to be printed would be ready, it was announced the several hundred which the college office annually distributes to Wisconsin high schools and enough for members of the Senior class would be given out first. Those for underclassmen will be distributed later in case the first number was insufficient.

To Give Orators Scholarship Prizes

Many Wisconsin High Schools Expected To Enter Lawrence Contests

Seven hundred dollars in scholarships will be given as prizes in the annual interscholastic contests in oratory and extempore speaking, to which any high school in the state may send representatives, to be held under the auspices of the public speaking department, Friday, May 21, according to announcement of Prof. A. L. Franzke, who is in charge.

Winners of first place in each contest will receive a gold medal, and a two-year scholarship to Lawrence college. This scholarship is equal to $200 in cash. Second place carries with it a silver medal and a one-year scholarship. Winners of third place will receive a $50 scholarship.

These scholarships are non-transferable, and must be used within two years of graduation from high school.

Entries Coming In

Entries of high school speakers who will compete are already coming in to the local department, presaging an unusually successful meet. Upwards of thirty high schools were included in the competition last year.

The preliminaries of each contest take place in the afternoon, while the finals come off in the evening.

Harwood to Install New Pi Delt Group

Prof. Dix Harwood was the choice of Lawrence chapter of Pi Delta Epsilon, national honorary men's journalistic fraternity, to install a new chapter of the fraternity at Carleton college Northfield, Minn., which was recently authorized at the national convention of the organization.

Lawrence will be the installing group at the special request of the Carleton local, and on the appointment of the national officers, in spite of the fact that Pi Delta Epsilon has a nearer chapter, located at the University of Minnesota. The friendly relations existing between Lawrence and Carleton were responsible for this decision.

Takes Place May 10

Prof. Harwood expects to conduct the installation services on Saturday, May 10.

Lillian Sindahl-Toelle To Sing in Neenah May 6

Mrs. Lillian Sindahl-Toelle of Milwaukee, formerly of Neenah, who is probably one of the most talented students that have ever studied at Lawrence conservatory of music, and who is being heralded by music critics of Milwaukee and Chicago as the "Norwegian nightingale of Wisconsin," will appear in a public recital in Neenah theatre at Neenah on the night of Tuesday, May 6. Miss Carolyn Louise Willard, Chicago pianist, will accompany her.

The program is under auspices of associated guilds of St. Thomas Episcopal church of Neenah, and a number of Lawrence and Appleton music lovers are planning to attend.

Wenzel Albrecht, a conservatory student, played two violin solos in Chapel on Thursday. His numbers were, "Romance" by D'Ambrosio, and "Minuet" by Hochstein. Mr. Albrecht was accompanied by LeVahn Maesch at the piano.

Palmer Boothby, president of the Alpha chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity at Ann Arbor, Mich., was a guest at the Sigma house here for two days last week.

Lawrentians Go to Annual Press Meet

State Intercollegiate Association Meets at Ripon; Enter Publications

Charles Marsh, '25, and Marvin Keil, '25, editor and business manager respectively of the 1925 Ariel, and Dan Hardt, '25, editor, and Harold H. Hamilton, '25, business manager, of the Lawrentian, will go to Ripon college today, Friday and Saturday to attend the annual convention of the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Press association, of which Lawrence has again become a member school.

A two-day program has been arranged that will include speeches and discussions of subjects of interest to college journalists both from an editorial and managerial standpoint. Group discussions will be held by the editors and managers of the different types of publications.

Besides Ripon and Lawrence, the association includes Beloit, Milton, Carroll and Milwaukee-Downer colleges, Marquette university, and the University of Wisconsin. Each college will enter its newspaper and literary magazine in a contest for ranking, in which four places will be awarded, the decisions to be made, for the newspapers, by the journalism department heads of the Medill School of Journalism, Northwestern university, and for the magazines, by the journalism department of the University of Missouri.

Enter Lawrence Publications

The Lawrentian has been entered in the newspaper contest, while Editor Marsh of the 1925 Ariel expected to have ready a copy of his this year's publication to enter in the magazine contest.

The program will include many prominent figures in the journalistic world as speakers, including Prof. W. G. Bleyer, head of the department of Journalism at the state university, and Julius Lieberman, managing editor of the Milwaukee Sentinel.

Delegates are to be entertained at the different dormitories on the Ripon campus. A banquet will be held Friday evening, followed by a dance for the visitors.

Miss Mary Louise Brown, dean of women, attended the national convention of Alpha Gamma Delta held at Des Moines, Ia., over the weekend. Miss Brown is national secretary of her sorority.

Elaborate Program of Dances Will Be Feature of Annual May Fete Program

Probably the prettiest features of the annual May Fete, to be held on Friday, May 23, in addition to the ceremonies at which Miss Marjorie Nichol, '24, will be crowned Queen of May, will be the program of dances, preparations for which, under direction of Miss Irene Bennett, '26, are now well under way.

Miss Bennett has already arranged a program, to be divided into three groups, solo, couple and group dances, has selected her personnel and is conducting regular rehearsals.

The program arranged is one of the most attractive that has ever graced a May Day program at Lawrence, and with the exceptional ability represented in the persons selected to take part in each of the numbers, Lawrence campus is assured something unusually good.

The program of dances, with the persons to take part, as announced by Miss Bennett, follows:

Sylvia Hunt, Lorraine Tees, Mary Kanouse, Betty Kendall and Catherine Walker.

2. Csardos

Epsilon Alpha Phi Goes Into Nat'l Group

Lawrence Sorority Becomes Zeta Of Beta Phi Alpha; Installed Wednesday

Beta Phi Alpha, national sorority, has granted a chapter to Epsilon Alpha Phi sorority at Lawrence, which became Zeta chapter of Beta Phi Alpha at formal installation on Wednesday afternoon. Miss Dorothy Osborn, inspector for Beta Phi Alpha, arrived in Appleton on Friday to complete the preparations for the granting of the national charter, and announced the success of Epsilon Alpha Phi's petition to the sorority members and pledges at the sorority rooms, 777 Durkee-st., on Friday evening.

Beta Phi Alpha is the seventh national sorority to grant a chapter to a Lawrence college sorority. Epsilon Alpha Phi was founded by a group of upperclassmen on Oct. 31, 1919, with the close cooperation of the dean of women, Mrs. Mary Beal Housel, and of several other faculty members.

Della Burgess O'Geran of Havard, Ill., the founder of the local sorority, was among the alumnae who were initiated into Beta Phi Alpha by Miss Osborn. Twenty-two members were initiated including four alumnae besides Mrs. O'Geran. They were the Misses Ruth Sandborn and Muriel Kelly, both of the class of 1920, Miss Viola James, ex-'23, and Miss Clara Smith, ex-'26. Other alumnae members will be initiated later.

Charter Members

The charter members of Beta Phi Alpha are:

The formal installation of Zeta chapter took place at the sorority rooms on Wednesday afternoon. The installation banquet followed it at the Valley Inn at Neenah on Wednesday evening. A reception for Miss Osborn has been arranged for Thursday afternoon.

Founded in 1909

Beta Phi Alpha was founded at the University of California in 1909 but did not begin an expansion policy until 1919. It was accepted into National Pan Hellenic council at the 1923 meeting in Boston, the first new sorority to be recognized by the national council in several years. It has chapters at the University of Illinois, at Colorado Agricultural college at Fort Collins, Colo., at the University of Washington and at Southern Methodist college in Dallas, Tex.

The Lawrence chapter is the first to be installed since the Pan Hellenic recognition of the sorority. Miss Osborn is on an extensive inspection tour of sororities which are petitioning the group. She will install another chapter on this trip and possibly a third. The inspector who is here is a sister of Miss Violet Osborn who represented the sorority at the Pan Hellenic conference in Boston. Miss Violet Osborn was the first inspector of Beta Phi Alpha and installed three of its previously granted chapters.

Church Conference Is Success--Report

Lawrence Delegates to Louisville Return; Favor Church Union

Otto Paulson, '25, and Arthur Tuttle, '24, Lawrence delegates to the national Methodist Students' conference, held April 18, 19 and 20 at Louisville, Ky., have returned and report an unusually successful and most enthusiastic gathering. The conference was an outgrowth of the recent Student Volunteer Movement gathering at Indianapolis, held directly after Christmas, at which Lawrence was also represented.

Six hundred students from thirty-seven states gathered to discuss problems of present day importance, War and Public Opinion, The Race Problem, the Klu Klux Klan, and Pacifism. The subject of Methodism was especially stressed, with the advisability of combining the North and South divisions of the Methodist churches as the dominating topic. The general opinion, according to the Lawrence men, favored union of the two groups.

At the meetings which were held at the Trinity Methodist church, discussion was entirely in charge of students, with Bishops McCall and Moore of Texas the only non-student speakers on the program.

Noted Poet Present

Edwin Markham, poet, who was in the city, was present at one of the meetings and read from several of his works, including "The Man With the Hoe."

Paulson and Tuttle were the only delegates from Wisconsin.

Three Men Honored With Forensic "L"

Forensic "L's" were awarded to Dan Hardt, '25, Willard Henoch, '26, and Chester Seftenberg, '26, for their work this season in intercollegiate oratory and debate at a recent meeting of the Forensic board.

Hardt, after three years of service, receives the distinctive "L" which is awarded to men who have won three intercollegiate debates on three different questions. Henoch's award is a double "L" which is given to men who have won second place in a state oratorical contest, and who have taken part in two intercollegiate debates on different questions. Seftenberg is to receive a plain "L" which is awarded to men who have taken part in two intercollegiate debates, at least one of which must have been won.

The distinctive "L" is set with one diamond, while the double honor "L" bears a ruby.

Former Lawrentian Heads Junior High

William F. Waterpool, '20, by a contract completed last week, becomes principal of the new Marinette junior high school, beginning next school year. After his graduation from Lawrence Mr. Waterpool went to Kaukauna as assistant principal of the high school and athletic coach. He is now principal of the Kaukauna school.

While at Lawrence he made a prominent record in intercollegiate athletics. He played four years of college basketball, captaining the team in his junior year, and two years of football. He is a member of Delta Iota fraternity.

At Marinette Mr. Waterpool will have charge of 625 students and a staff of 32 teachers, working in a building erected in 1922.

Miss Florence Moore of the English department read Tolstoi's "Three Arshins of Land," at Y.W.C.A. meeting, Sunday evening, April 27. Miss Gertrude Selander played several selections on the violin.

COLLEGE MUSICIANS WILL PLAY HERE

St. Olaf college band of Northfield, Minn., (above) will play in Lawrence Memorial chapel tomorrow evening. The band is appearing under auspices of Lutheran churches of Appleton and other cities of the Fox River valley.

Judging from advance sale of seats, a capacity audience will greet the group on its appearance here.

The organization is composed of forty-four students, with Gertrude Boe Overby featured as a soloist. The band is just completing its thirty-third season. A varied program is to be presented, according to announcement of those in charge.

Quite a number of Lawrentians are planning to attend.

Drama by Jerome Selected To Be All-College Play

"The Passing of the Third Floor Back," by the widely-known American playwright, Jerome K. Jerome, has been chosen as the annual all-college play, to be presented in Lawrence Memorial chapel on the evening of Thursday, May 22, by the class in Play production, according to announcement of Miss Margaret Sherman, head of Dramatic Art at Lawrence, who will coach and direct the undertaking.

And student in college is eligible to try out for parts in the cast. Final try-outs will be held at the end of this week, and from the result of those will be named the cast, which then becomes the class in Play Production, the regular meetings of which comprise the rehearsals.

Has Unusual Style

"The Passing of the Third Floor Back" is neither a comedy nor a tragedy. Its theme is serious, though its lines are said to be very entertaining. It is unusual in style in that it is divided into prologue, the play proper, and epilogue.

It is one of Jerome's best known plays. The author is perhaps the most noted of contemporary American playwrights.

Greek Groups Plan for Spring Camps

Greek letter organizations on Lawrence campus are already making plans for their spring camping trips which are made annually at the close of school. A few of the organizations have not yet made definite plans but will do so shortly, it is expected.

All of the other fraternities and sororities will go to Waupaca, except Kappa Alpha Theta, Delta Iota and Sigma Phi Epsilon who have not yet made their decision. The length of time the groups will stay varies from five days to two weeks.

Letters Of a Lawrence Co-ed

Russell Sage,
May 1, 1924.

Dear Jane:

I found something down at BEATRICE'S the other day which is right in line with the letter I wrote you last week about my long over-due calls on patronesses, etc. Gloves aren't the only thing that go with formal calls—personal cards are quite as essential, you know.

BEATRICE takes orders for the most effective calling cards. They are done in "Reliefograph," which is not distinguishable from plate-engraving, and of course saves a good deal of time and money by the elimination of copper plates. I ordered some made up in an awfully attractive type for use this Spring, and I had the benefit of expert judgment at BEATRICE'S as to the socially correct size and shape of card, type, form of name, etc.

I just sent Mother one of the lovely engraved greeting cards BEATRICE is featuring. They are quite unusual in their good taste and appropriateness. Their "just-so" combination of sincerity and dignity, so hard to find in ordinary cards, when combined with such artistry as in BEATRICE'S greeting cards, is hard to resist.

Diane.

HENRY CAVENDISH

1731-1810
English chemist and physicist, of whom Biot said, "He was the richest of the learned and the most learned of the rich. His last great achievement was his famous experiment to determine the density of the earth."

He first made water from gases

Henry Cavendish, an eccentric millionaire recluse, who devoted his life to research, was the discoverer of the H and the O in H₂O. In fact he first told the Royal Society of the existence of hydrogen.

He found what water was by making it himself, and so became one of the first of the synthetic chemists.

Cavendish concluded that the atmosphere contained elements then unknown. His conclusion has been verified by the discovery of argon and other gases.

The Research Laboratories of the General Electric Company have found a use for argon in developing lamps hundreds of times brighter than the guttering candles which lighted Cavendish's laboratory.

In this age of electricity the General Electric Company has blazed the trail of electrical progress. You will find its monogram on the giant generators used by lighting companies; and even on the lamps and little motors that mean so much in the home. It is a symbol of useful service.

LAWRENCE PATERNALISM

We have not left those days so far behind but what you may recall the time when mother used to forbid you to go fishing in the river beyond Pleasant Hill for fear you might fall in and drown. What a sense of satisfaction you experienced when you succeeded in sneaking out the side door and down the alley to go fishing with "the gang", and to return late in the afternoon with the story that you had been over seeing Dick, whose mother had asked you to stay to dinner. Such trickery was reckoned by the gang as an admirable and stupendous accomplishment, especially when you "got by" with it.

You may also recall the first morning you donned long trousers and father called you into the sitting room after breakfast to put his hand on your shoulder and say in a confidential manner, "John, you are now a man (you were fourteen) almost as big as your father. Like all men you must begin to work and save money. How would you like to begin work in my office after school hours and on Saturdays?" How your old chest swelled to think that your father considered you big enough to start work in his office. Entrusted with such confidence, nothing escaped your notice at the office the first six weeks. Nor did you attempt to shirk your duties.

At Lawrence we tend to lose sight of that trust and confidence which makes for responsibility and to be hurled back into the days of our infancy when Johnnie took great sport in plucking a plum out of the pudding after mother had turned her back. Wherever we turn we are confronted with the insinuation that the Powers That Be KNOW that we are not capable of handling ourselves and so dogmatically tell us just what we must and must not do. Under-class girls must be in the dormitories by seven-thirty o'clock evenings; Freshmen fellows must be in by ten-thirty. In their rooms they must be spied on by "proctors." Every offense has its "spanking." We are compelled to go to chapel to sign slips as proof that we were there. For fear we may get up and leave during the exercises, each proctor must sit at the end of his aisle to take down the names of those who might attempt it. On Sunday we must go to church. Roll-call is taken on Monday. Girls may go to eight dances and six theatre performances a year, but this only after "written requests on the part of their parents or guardians be filed first with the Dean of women and special permission be given." As if doubting the HONOR of the honor system, we are required to write our examinations under the scrutiny of a professor.

All student offenses are referred to the Student Senate or the Women's Self-Governing Association for punishment. We are coaxed into believing those organizations are student self-governing machines just as Johnnie is coaxed into believing that a spoonful of castor oil mixed with a glass of milk is not medicine but a refreshing drink. The truth is that both organizations are but "white-washed" tools indirectly performing the will of the faculty.

Is it to be wondered at that students break dormitory rules, think nothing of cribbing in exams, and have no mind for conscientious study with such a veil of mistrust and paternalism enveloping the campus? "Why act for yourself? Papa is there to tell you what you must and must not do."

We do not openly accuse the faculty of intentionally effecting this paternal atmosphere about the campus. The atmosphere nevertheless is there, and we believe that in trying to cope with the problems of student life they have hit upon the wrong method. Less faculty dictatorship, more student power invested in the campus self-governing associations, and an "on your honor" campus attitude are the essential factors that will develop a GREATER LAWRENCE.

We ask Professor Ingler's commercial classes, "Why all the interest in market conditions for bobbed-haired teachers?"

Professors will at least be able to attribute the non-attention of students in class lectures to a definite distraction next week.—The 1925 Ariel comes out today!

Murmuring of The Elms

By AMOS

"And the Elms on the campus murmured softly, —"

Perhaps

The bachelor, statistics prove,
Enjoys a longer lease of life
Than married men, who rarely move
Away from the tempestuous groove
Of normal matrimonial strife.

Without a worry in the world

The bachelor pursues his way—
His fond illusions are not hurled
Into the dust; with flag unfurled
He sails the seas, a rover gay.

The carefree bachelor's caprice

Embraces all that life can give;
The husband, being all for peace,
Enjoys an earlier release.

(Perhaps he doesn't want to live!)
—Cassel's Saturday Journal.

We like the above poem (?) because the blossoming genius has touched such a tender subject and done it without the usual inculcation of the matrimonial rolling pin into his progeny. But just the same, from observation, we're sure a good old Irish ship behind that well-known implement of conjugal bliss has helped more than once to prove that "statistics prove," the bachelor "enjoys a longer lease of life than married men."

Might we be permitted to dedicate the above rendition to Dr. John B.?

Brutus (to Caesar): How many eggs did you eat, Caesar?
Caesar: "Et tu, Brutus!"

Would You?

Since, Coed, you're a pacifist
What would you do if you were kissed?
Would you be peaceful, calm and meek,
And merely turn the other cheek?
Or would you be so hopping mad
You'd see the sense in "Be Prepared?"
—Oscar.

Four 'Best Sellers' Added to Library

The latest addition to the growing number of books in the English club circulating library includes several of the recent "best sellers," "Mother of Gold," by Emerson Hough; "So Big," by Edna Ferber; "The King Versus Wargrave," by J. S. Fletcher; and "The Fir and the Palm," by Elizabeth Bibesco. The latest novel of Edna Ferber, a former Appleton woman, included in the list, is being acclaimed highly by book lovers, and it has received quite a run in the short time it has been in the library here.

The latest word in detective stories for those who delight in reading of the mysteries of crime is the novel of J. S. Fletcher, "The King Versus Wargrave." The works of the other two authors, which have been added to the library, are a continuance of the merit expressed in their former productions

Florence Ross to Talk on Art Shops Before Coeds

Art and gift shops, which ranked high on the list of vocations in which Lawrence girls are interested, according to a census taken by W.S.G.A. recently, are to be the subject of a talk by Miss Florence Ross to all girls who are interested, in Russell Sage Parlors, at 4:30 P. M. on Thursday, May 1. Miss Ross, proprietor of the "Treasure Box" gift shop in this city, is a former Lawrence student. She is a member of Alpha Gamma Phi at Lawrence, and of Pi Beta Phi at the University of Wisconsin, of which she is a graduate.

This talk is one of the series of vocational guidance lectures which are being delivered before Lawrence girls through the efforts of W.S.G.A. The lectures are one feature of the organization's program of wider service to the college.

Music for Every Child is Plea of Convention

"Music for every child and every child for music" was the thought emphasized by Lotus D. Koffmann, president of the University of Minnesota, at the convention of Public School music directors at Cincinnati, Ohio, recently at which Lawrence Conservatory of Music was represented by Professor Earl Baker, of the Conservatory faculty. The dominant note of the convention was a plea to give every child a chance to learn and appreciate more beautiful music.

Training in sight reading was urged as the means of equipping children to do this, according to Professor Baker. "That increased technical training in public school methods courses and in orchestra and band directing is to be required of supervisors of music was easy to discern," said Prof. Baker. This means the present two year training course must be lengthened.

Sophomores Capture Inter-Class Meet; Blue Opens Season Against Pointers

Seniors, Freshmen Tied For Second; 'Os' Cooke High

Lawrence's annual inter-class track meet of last Saturday will go down in track annals as one of the closest in its history. The Sophomore team, led by Stair and Purvis, with two firsts to their credit, on a score of 43½, nosed out the strong Senior and Frosh teams, who were tied at 38 points for second place. The Juniors trailed a sad last with a grand total of 6½ points. At the end of the meet the three classes were closely grouped, and it was not until Purvis out-straggled his competitors in the two-mile event that the Sophomores were assured of a small margin of victory.

Considering the weather and the general condition of the track the track aspirants made a very creditable showing. The recent rains made the course soggy, and it was impossible to make good time. A strong chilly wind which blew steadily during the afternoon was also a great handicap. The crowd was small and very disappointing, being made up of townspeople largely.

The Senior team, led by "Osie" Cooke, proved to be the big surprise of the afternoon. Composed of only four members, Capt. Grignon, Cooke, Smith and Hunt, they entered into the competition with such determination that they walked off with a majority of the first place honors, taking six firsts, two seconds, and two thirds.

Cooke High Pointer

Cooke was high point winner of the meet, winning the high jump, and both high and low hurdles. He came within an inch of tying the college record when he jumped 5 ft. 8 in. in the high jump. If he can repeat this feat in the state and Midwest meets he should be a sure point winner.

Stair, who ran the 100 yd. dash in 10:1 seconds, showed the greatest promise among the new men. Hipke, who threw the shot 37½ feet, will be sure to place in the future meets if he keeps up his good work. Rehbein ran a pretty race in the 440 yd. run, when he turned in a time of 55.1 seconds.

The prospects as revealed by the performances Saturday are fairly good, according to Coach Denny. The pole vault and broad jump are the weakest events, and the time in the distance runs was not up to expectations, but this is explained somewhat in the lack of proper training in these events due to the poor weather conditions, which made consistent practice impossible. Many good performances were displayed, and with the help of additional practice and warm weather, Denny is ready to give plenty of competition to the Blue's track opponents in the season's schedule.

The Results

Following are the results of the individual events and the order in which the contestants finished:

100 yard dash—Stair, Kotal, Nobles—Time 10 1/5 sec.

Pole Vault—Courtney, McConnell, Nason—Height 9 ft. 8 in.

2 Mile—Purvis, Lochlin, Kingsburg—Time 12 min. 33 sec.

Shotput—Hipke, W. Smith, Lepley—Distance 36 ft. 7 1/2 in.

440 yard—Rehbein, Gribble, Hunt—Time 55 min. 1/10 sec.

Highjump—Cooke, Kotal, Stair—Height 5 ft. 7 in.

Little Five Mentors Adopt Cage Schedule

Prof. J. H. Farley and Coach A. C. Denny represented Lawrence at a recent meeting of Little Five conference coaches and faculty representatives at Milwaukee, at which a tentative basketball schedule for the conference for 1924-1925 was adopted. Because several of the schools have conflicts, including Lawrence, a great deal of alteration in the schedule is expected.

The question of permitting athletes to officiate for money in high school and other contests was discussed, but no decision was reached on this matter. Though no protests were filed, the cases of a number of athletes was discussed, but without definite action.

The tentative conference schedule follows:

Jan. 23—Carroll at Lawrence; Ripon at Beloit.

Jan. 30—Carroll at Ripon; Lawrence at Beloit.

Feb. 5—Beloit at Ripon.

Feb. 6—Beloit at Appleton.

Feb. 13—Ripon at Waukesha.

Feb. 20—Lawrence at Ripon; Beloit at Waukesha.

Feb. 27—Carroll at Appleton.

Mar. 6—Ripon at Appleton; Carroll at Beloit.

Preparations Ready For Schools' Event

Medals have been ordered and other preparations are practically completed for the first Fox River Valley High School track meet to be sponsored by Lawrence athletic department at Lawrence field on Saturday, May 17, in which principal schools of the valley are entered. According to Coach Denny all indications point to this track carnival being the best in the state because of the strong high school teams which have signified their intention of entering the meet.

Attractive medals will be awarded for the place winners in each event in addition to team, relay and sportsmanship awards, the former the gift of Appleton merchants.

Thus far the following schools are booked to put strong teams in the field: Marinette, East Green Bay, West Green Bay, Appleton, Oshkosh, Fond du Lac, Manitowish, and Sheboygan.

Is Gala Event

The officials back of this meet are hoping to make this day an outstanding event in the year's athletic activities at Lawrence. The meet itself should be well worth while, for it will bring together some of the strongest teams in central Wisconsin, and some splendid showings are expected from the individual contestants.

120 yard high hurdles—Cooke, Bayer, Briese—Time 17 min. 2/5 sec.

Discus—W. Smith, Hipke, Stoll. Distance 109 ft. 1 in.

880 yard—Hunt, Benson, Fuller—Time 2 ft. 15 sec.

Broad Jump—McConnell, Kotal, Courtney—Distance 18 ft. 8 in.

220 yard dash—Stair, Kotal, Nobles—Time 23 min. 2/5 sec.

Javelin—Grignon, Lepley, Heideman—Distance 139 ft. 7 in.

Mile—Purvis, Lochlin, Larsen—Time 5 min. 9 2/5 sec.

120 yard low hurdles—Cooke, Dawley, Briese—Time 14 ft. 3/5 sec.

Normal Stars To Give Denny's Men Real Competition

Coach Denny's Blue track stars will be given their first trial of the season under the fire of interscholastic competition when they meet Stevens Point normal in a dual meet at Lawrence field at 1:30 P.M. Saturday. According to word received from the Pointer's camp they have a much stronger team this year than last year, and Denny's men will have ample opportunity to demonstrate their prowess, both in track and field events.

Stevens Point always manages to give the Blue and White representatives a good fight for honors in track, and, if the weather is favorable, track enthusiasts should be in line for an interesting meet.

The showing of the trackmen in the inter-class meet Saturday was highly encouraging to Coach Denny, and although he does not expect to walk off with all the meets this spring he is hopeful of making a very creditable showing in each. Cooke in the high jump, Hipke in the shotput, and Stair in the dashes look like sure point winners if they continue their good work. Rehbein also ran a pretty race in the 440, and should make a strong showing this spring.

Kotal, in the dashes, and Grignon in the javelin are expected to round rapidly into form as soon as the weather permits their intensive training.

Limit to Three Events

Entrants will be confined to three events in the meet Saturday, in order that the men may give their best in each event.

According to Coach Denny qualifications for track "L's" may be made in the meet by winning a first place and a second, or a total of eight points. Should weather conditions be favorable no doubt many will qualify for the coveted emblem.

Ripon is Next

On the week following Ripon will come to Appleton to tackle the Blue and White, and the meet Saturday will serve to point the men for the more trying meet the following week.

Wheeler, All-State Grid Star, To Coach at Elgin

Arthur F. Wheeler, ex '24, who is this June being graduated from Beloit college, one of the greatest all-round athletes that ever played with the "Gold," and who, while at Lawrence was an all-state gridiron star, has signed as head coach and athletic director at the Elgin junior college and academy at Elgin, Ill.

Wheeler will succeed Elden Link, who has resigned. He has been a star in football, basketball, track and baseball. He was at Lawrence in 1920 and 1921, and is a member of Delta Iota.

3:30 O'clock Girls' Gym Class Winner in Tourney

The 3:30 gym class was the winner in the finals of the girls' volley-ball tournament, held in Alexander gym Monday night. The losers of the preliminary games played in a consolation match in which the 4:30 class won from the 9:30 class.

The results of the games follow: 9:30, 15-15, 4:30, 10-10; 3:30, 6-15-15; 10:30, 15-12-0.

Net Stars Tackle Carroll Saturday

Pioneers Invade Lawrence Camp; Denymen Showing Up Strong

Carroll college net experts will open Lawrence's first interscholastic tennis schedule on campus courts on Saturday afternoon, at 1:30 o'clock. The tennis matches will be held in conjunction with the track meet against Stevens Point normal and Coach Denny hopes to make it a gala day for spectators.

The tennis matches no doubt will be some of the best seen on the local campus for Carroll is recognized as a stronghold for the net game.

Lawrence court squad has been working indoors as much as possible to be in readiness for the meet and can be counted upon to put up the strongest kind of a fight. Three sets of singles will be played, and one set of doubles, according to present plans.

Those Eligible

Lawrence will be represented by four men, who will be picked by Denny from the twelve veterans who are now out. The following men are candidates for positions on the team: Nesbit, Heideman, Dwight and Russel Hunting, Lee, Hollis, Anderson, and McGowan.

Roland Tesch, ex '22, of Chilton visited with Delta Iota fraternity brothers here last weekend. Mr. Tesch is in business with his father.

Irving Johnson, '21, of Hortonville, spent last week end at the Delta Iota fraternity house visiting fraternity brothers.

Kenneth Hamar, ex '26, of Marinette, spent the week-end with Delta Iota fraternity brothers here.

Christian Leaders Subject of 'Y' Talk

Mr. W. C. Cross of Appleton high school faculty spoke before the regular Y.M.C.A. devotional meeting last Sunday evening, discussing a topic dealing with Christian leadership in the modern sense of the word. He made a plea for "radical christians" in the local community, for "radical Christians" in the nation and "radical Christian thinkers" in affairs of international importance.

"Men who are ahead of their time in the study and application of Christian principles are needed," said Mr. Cross, "and it is the radical Christian who keeps ahead of his time by pronouncing his beliefs and living up to them."

Represents School In Latin Contest

Bernice Butcher, '25, went to Madison Monday to represent Lawrence in the competition for the Latin League of Wisconsin colleges' prize in Latin. Awards of $250 in cash, $75 in cash, and $25 in books, accompanied by gold, silver, and bronze medals are given to winners of first, second, and third places, respectively.

The awards are made on the basis of an examination on a prescribed subject, this year Caesar's "Civil War," and on the reading of Latin at sight.

If Miss Butcher is successful, it will be the first time in several years that a Lawrence student has won this contest, according to Dr. A. H. Weston, head of the department of Classical Languages. The contest is a biennial one.

F. R. Easton, grand national president of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity, was a guest of the local chapter of the fraternity the early part of the week. He also attended the district Rotary club convention here Tuesday and Wednesday.

"I can't insure until I get out of debt."

Sometimes a debt is for an education. The honest man wants to pay it as soon as possible. If he continues to live he will pay it. But maybe the end will come too soon and then the creditor is never paid. Debt means obligation—the obligation to carry insurance until the debt is paid.
